Annie and Mike,

This case is scheduled for trial on 1/26 – I would not need you there the first day, but could schedule testimony for one of the following days. It is fairly likely that the defendant will take a plea on this case on 1/18.
What is your availability in the days following 1/26?

Dave,

I am summoned to Suffolk for a trial beginning 12-12 and would anticipate testifying 12-13. I have a personal errand to attend to 12-20.

I have begun the paper chase for our archived notes on this case. We need to refer to them to refresh our memory. On occasion, when our notes are not presented in discovery, we have been prohibited from using them in court. When that happens, we can only speak to the meaning of the certificates, the labels on the evidence bags and to general operations in the lab, rather than the particular details of the case such as weight. I will e-mail the "discovery package" as soon as it is compiled.

Hi Dave,

Hope all is well.

The week of 12/12, I have a Federal case (which may get continued) and a few other Superior/District cases. The week of 12/19, a couple of district courts.

On Call is fine with me and we can coordinate as the date approaches.

Thanks.

Dear Ms. Khan and Mr. Lawler,

I hope this email find you both well.

I have a case currently scheduled to wrap up a motion to suppress at the end of this week. Depending on the courts schedule, the trial of this case may start the following week. Can you let me know what your availability is the week beginning 12/12, as well as the following week?

Thank you,

Dave
